

Battle on Realty Valuations Loom

Palatine Committee Walks Out

What appears to be a desperate battle on the new property valuations for the next four years seems certain if the county assessor's office follows out what seems to be its intention for a general increase in valuations in the county towns.

The Palatine assessor and his two committees were the first of the county townships to meet with representatives of the assessor's office.

Assessor Devermann and his committee were in the assessor's office Monday morning for the comparing of values recommended by the local assessor and his advisors and the values set by the county office.

The local committees got exactly nowhere, the farm committee walked out at about 11 o'clock in the morning and at 2 o'clock the village committee also quit and came home.

The figures set by the county assessor showed a general increase in farm valuations and a boost of up to $40 per front foot in the business district.

The local committees felt that the figures of the last assessment were nearly fair and had held their figures comparable to that assessment.

They absolutely refused to sanction the increases put on by the county office.

The Palatine committees took into consideration the needs of the various taxing bodies and kept their valuations sufficiently high to take care of those needs.

They failed to see why Palatine valuations should be increased because Blue Island and some other towns had too low valuations to meet their financial needs.

With conditions no better than four years ago and with farms selling for less than the valuations set by the assessors, the local men could see no reason and no justice in increased valuations.

Farm Adviser Hughes of the Cook County Farm Bureau, was also present and told the assessor's office that farmers throughout the county were pretty well satisfied with present valuations which they considered fairly just, although still plenty high.

He said any increase would be considered out of line by the farmers of the county.

When it was plain that the Palatine committees meant to stand by their guns, the assessor's office arranged for some of their experts to again visit Palatine and go over the situation and meet again with the local committees.

The local committees feel, however, that any general increase in valuations is excessive and will refuse to give their sanction to any such move.

The threat was made by the county office that if no agreement was reached, the valuations as set by the county office would be put through without the signature of the local assessor.

At one point in the battle assessor Devermann was told to bring in another committee that would listen to reason, to which he replied that his committee had been approved by the county office and that they were a competent committee and that he would stick with them.

It appeared evident to all present that for some reason or other the county office insists on generally higher values.

If their attitude on Palatine is carried out throughout the county it will mean that a great big battle on the new assessments is certain, and that another tax strike is imminent and that payless days will again be the lot of county employees.

The Palatine committees are composed of Fred Porep, Dan Bergman Jr. and Wm. Bauman on farm values and Wm. Kehe, H. H. Schoppe and T. C. Hart on the village property.

Pal-Schaumburg 4-H club held its second meeting the year at the Palatine high school Monday when Elias Pionsky was elected president.

The other officers chosen that evening are Ralph Porep, vice-president; Allan Reinshagen, secretary-treasurer; Wilbert Gieseke, reporter and Roy Lolise, recreational chairman.

In addition to these officers Advisor Herstrum has appointed Norman Freise as assistant advisor and Raymond Thies as club delegate to the Cook county federation.

After the meeting the boys enjoyed a delightful evening at the home of Mr. Herstrum where a ping-pong tournament was played and a luncheon served.

Allan Reinshagen was the winner of the tournament in which he defeated all the members (even Mr. Herstrum).

Dist. 13 Asks Consolidation With Palatine

Action Will Be Deferred Awaiting Decision of Other Schools

There is a possibility that a township wide school annexation program may be adopted in Palatine township, District 13 recently took the initiative and last Wednesday night its school directors and citizens committee conferred with the members of the district 13 board (Palatine village) regarding possibilities for an outright annexation of that school district to the village school district.

Owing to lack of accommodations in the present village school, President Arps and the members were loath to make any promises but it was admitted by both sides that the growing population in the rural sections of the township necessitated some definite action by all school districts in the township if proper schooling is to be provided the school children.

The directors of District 13 are Robert Muessler, Wm. Weiseman, and Morris Kells. The advisory committee that attended the conference Wednesday night are Mr. D. C. Talbot, Bert Somers and Gilbert Hayes.

Taxpayers of the district expressed their desire for annexation at a recent mass meeting. Informal plans are now being made for the establishment of a school bus to carry school pupils to Palatine and payment of the required tuition if the village school can accommodate them.

At present there are 38 pupils in district 13 with classes in eight grades. Proper instruction by a single teacher is impossible.

District 17 is in a somewhat similar position and annexation sentiment is being developed in that district. District 19 will soon be faced with a similar condition.

A solution of the entire problem would be the erection of a second elementary school building in Palatine, south of the railroad tracks. Annexation, if it is attempted, should be extended to include the entire township with one general board of education membership in which would be proportioned similar to that of the high school.

There would be nothing to prevent the use of the two room school building in district 16, or the operation of any of the other schools for the lower grades in the various districts where the buildings are adequate. The upper grade children of the entire township would be transported to the central school.

Ultimately all pupils would probably attend the central school buildings. Mr. Talbot, who previously resided in Idaho says that it is not uncommon to have one school building for townships covering twice the area of Palatine.

The number of children attending the rural school will soon equal the number in the village schools. Population is at a standstill with the village, while many new homes are being built in the rural districts.

Merle Guild Post of the American Legion observed the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of the American Legion in France in 1919 by an anniversary dinner Tuesday evening at the Legion home. Over fifty were present.

There was no formal program, but Commander Bauman presided, inducting past commanders and the charter members who were present.

The post was honored by having present that evening, George Kuhs, its first commander, now a resident of Crystal Lake, Gen. Weiss, of the intelligence department of the U. S. A. presented some entertaining films.

The post was surprised by the unannounced appearance of Mrs. Mae Wisersky, president of the auxiliary, who with a group of members of that organization, brought a huge birthday cake, serving it with ice cream.

The rest of the evening was spent in community singing and other entertainment.

Virgil Horath Wins Vacation Prize

Virgil Horath, proprietor of the Shell station on the Northwest highway is looking forward to an enjoyable vacation in Colorado during the coming summer. The good news came to him Friday from the National Tire Co., of which Mr. Horath is the local agent.

The prize is awarded to Virgil on account of the record he had established in this district over a period of three years in the handling of National products. He had been called on to make the least number of adjustments on tires and batteries in proportion to business handled than any other representative.

In commenting on the award Mr. Horath said, "I have only been requested to make ten adjustments in a 36th month period on tires and batteries. I consider that some record, but it must be remembered that National goods are quality."

The vacation award includes Mrs. Horath as well as to Mr. Horath.

It Was Only A Dog But It Might Be A Child Next Time

The speed limit is 20 miles per hour, but what of it! Speed!—We must get there in a hurry—Where? Oh where, we are going, no particular rush, but we hate to travel slowly.

"Look, there's a little white dog on the road; let's make him jump. He is not moving very fast, but we clip his tail—why should I try to miss him—he's only a dog. Gosh! we did hit him!"

From out of nowhere comes the anguished cry of a little boy—"Tippy!" Swiftly his little legs carry him to the side of his Pal, tenderly his quivering hands reach out to touch that dead head—"Tippy are you hurt?" At the sound of his Master's voice the pathetic eyes open and gaze into those of his Master and the low groan that escapes through the blood streaked mouth seems to say "You've been good to me! I know, you love me as much as I love you. We had lots of fun together but that's all over now. Good-by Master and don't cry too hard." Slowly the little tail that had wagged so happily a few seconds ago raises and lowers as if to give a final sign that the love that exists only between a boy and a dog remains unshaken in spite of man's inhumanity.

The little boy looks up to hear a girl say, "That's too bad" and to see her jump in the car and drive away.

"Tippy, Tippy!" but there is no response to the little boy's cries. Swiftly the tears well up and fall on his Pal's fur as with an unspoken prayer upon his lips and his hands tenderly pat the loved head in answer to his little playmate's sign of love, in the hope that somehow that little ball of fur and blood will know and understand—understand that his heart has been broken and that he will lay awake crying softly to himself and whispering "Tippy, come back—Tippy come back."

The alertness of Art Haldeman of Kitty Korner at midnight, Wednesday evening, brought about their capture. Mr. Haldeman recognized the car as the one described in a radio broadcast. County police were notified and a new broadcast was sent out.

They drove east on Dundee road, to Milwaukee south on route 38 and were doubling back to Rand rd., when the county police took up the chase.

The capture came an hour after they robbed the Black Forest tavern on Rand rd., their eighth robbery of the night. The tavern is in Cook county.

Deputies Robert Webb and Edward Zersen, of Lake county, on patrol near Lake Zurich, spied the automobile described in the police report. They gave chase when the car failed to stop.

Near the Lake-McHenry county line the sheriff's squad car was joined by Patrolman James Bailey of Barrington.

When the bandits were captured at Fox River Grove, they admitted throwing their firearms out of the car. Deputies Stanley Stadfield and Ray Simmers found the .38 calibre revolver and cap gun near Lake Zurich.

The youths confessed to 15 armed robberies in two nights, Morton Grove county highway police announced and they planned to become independently wealthy through crime.

Final Petitions Filed For City Election

Everything is in readiness for the coming municipal election in Arlington Heights. The last petition, comprising candidates for the library board, was filed Tuesday evening. There will be nine columns on the official ballot.

Two groups of aldermanic candidates will head the ballot. The candidates in the order in which their names will appear are:

Community ticket—Albert Adam, Theodore Studtman, A. C. Wilcox.

Peoples ticket—George Klehm, C. L. Griffith, Otto Schwartz.

Independent party—Wm. M. Neumann.

Neutral party—Rudolph Lacinia.

Service party—Edward Chidley.

Independent Service Party—Anthony T. Scolaro.

Tax Payers Party—W. Edward Fritz.

Village party—Henry C. Nichols.

Library Board, 4 year term to fill vacancy—Blanch Ashton; Clarence I. Davis, 6 year term; Irma G. Brosse, Harold S. Ratliff.

Gieseke's Store Dresses Up For Spring Season

An extensive remodeling and redecorating program is just completed at the Gieseke store, Arlington Heights, which is sure to attract the eye of every patron who enters the place. Not only that, but the result of this new improvement means that Gieseke's is going to be a nicer and more convenient place to shop.

The changes have been made in the grocery department which has been segregated from the rest of the store. This food department now is roomier, provides for a better display of goods and is featuring an excellent fresh fruit counter and window. The Centrella line is featured here.

The main part of the store is done in the same tone and presents a fresh and clean appearance that is bound to instill the spirit of spring. Gieseke's store has its own delivery service.

Native Filipino At Mission Meeting

Rev. Fernandez Carino, a native of the Philippines, will be featured in an address at the mission meeting sponsored by the St. Peter's Women's Mission Endeavor on Friday, March 24, 2 p. m.

The speaker, a former Catholic, is a graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, and is awaiting a call to return to his native land as a preacher of the Gospel. He will tell the remarkable story of his conversion, describe religious conditions in the Philippines and reveal the opportunities for mission work in this land.

An interesting mission program has been prepared for the meeting, including a topic discussion on the subject: "God's Armies Marching Time." A simple luncheon will be served after the program.

All ladies of the church and their friends are invited to come to this inspiring mission rally. Members are requested to bring a Bible and the March issue of the Harvest Call.

Slot Machine Bandits Tell Of 15 Thefts

Charge Youths With Unlawful Possession Of Firearms in County

Four of the five Cook county slot machine bandits captured by Cook and Lake county deputy sheriffs last Thursday morning after a radio chase through the southwestern part of Lake Co. were charged with unlawful possession of firearms.

The boys were tried at once and sentenced, on their plea of guilty, to Vandavia for varying terms.

They admitted having a .38 calibre revolver and a cap gun in their car while speeding through Lake Zurich. They told the state's attorney that they threw the firearms out of their car near Lake Zurich while being chased by the deputies.

"We were afraid that gangsters were following us," George Lamczyk, 26, told the state's attorney.

The others charged with violation of the firearms law were his brother, James, 20, and Edward Thomas, 17, of 1416 Wood st., Chicago, and Eddie Valentine, 17, of 1440 Elk Grove ave., Chicago.

Frank Lamczyk, the fifth, was not returned to Lake county.

George Lamczyk said that he led the slot machine raids in Cook county because some bandits had robbed the machines that were formerly in his father's tavern on Higgins rd., near Bartlett, about seven miles southwest of Barrington.

The alertness of Art Haldeman of Kitty Korner at midnight, Wednesday evening, brought about their capture. Mr. Haldeman recognized the car as the one described in a radio broadcast. County police were notified and a new broadcast was sent out.

INTRODUCING 'OUR' CANDIDATES

In order that readers of the Herald may become familiar with the candidates for public offices whose names will appear on the ballots for the coming Arlington Heights election, we will introduce a few of them to our readers each week.

Political announcements by the candidates themselves will appear from time to time on the inside pages of this paper.

THEODORE F. STUDTMAN, candidate for alderman of the Community ticket is an Arlington Heights man, who has resided in the City of Good Neighbors since he was three years old. That was 43 years ago.

MR. WILFRED E. FRITZ, Candidate for Police magistrate, is the first candidate at the forthcoming village election to be introduced to the people of Arlington Heights. Mr. Fritz is an attorney, a member of the American Bar association and of the Delta Theta Phi law fraternity. Although he has resided in Arlington Heights a number of years, his work has kept him so busy in Chicago that he may be a stranger to many residents.

Mr. Fritz is contemplating the establishment of a permanent law office in the village after May 1. He was born July 24, 1900, at Calvary, Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin, and is the son of Henry and Catherine Fritz. He was educated at Lewis Institute, and Northwestern University, receiving his LL.B. degree from John Marshall Law School. He was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1924 and has since practiced in Chicago, being associated with the firm of Robertson, Crowe and Spence. He married Laura Ackley in 1928, and they have two children. They came to Arlington Heights in 1929, where they have since resided in their own home at 311 North Douglas st.

He has never been elected to a public office, but he is a member of the board of directors of the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic association, president of the Lutheran Layman's League and president of the Concordia Mutual Benefit League.

Mr. Studtman was born August 30, 1893, in Chicago. He came to Arlington with his parents in 1897 when they took over the management of the Old Folks Home. He attended the Lutheran school and later the public school. Realizing the need of further education when employed in the accounting and later the claim department of the Northwestern railroad he attended night classes at a business college and took a correspondence course.

He entered the furniture business in Arlington Heights in 1921 and has continued in that line. He is married and is the father of two daughters.

Arlington Leads, DesPlaines Again Follows

An Arlington Heights village official stated this week that it was just a natural course of events when the Haddock Printers defeated for a second time the bowling team from the Des Plaines Publishers. The official outlined the situation as follows: "Arlington Heights was the first Northwest city to install traffic lights. Des Plaines said it did not need them. They have them today. Arlington was called 'backwoods' because its people refused to give up railroad crossing gates. A half dozen Des Plaines people had to be killed before its people demanded the installation of a safeguard that Arlington Heights has had thirty years. Big headlines in last week's Des Plaines press say that city has decided to cut costs by installing its own gas station for use of municipal cars. Arlington Heights did that last summer. Arlington Heights swimming pool was placed in operation a year ahead of Des Plaines. No wonder the Arlington Printers were first in Saturday's bowling match."

Earl Fredrichs Band At Arlington Ballroom For St. Patrick's Dance

This Friday, St. Patrick's Day, will prove a big evening to dance enthusiasts at Arlington Ballroom, Higgins road, 1 block west of Arlington Heights road, because Earl Fredrichs orchestra will be on hand to supply their famous melodies from the band stand.

Irish tunes for all, and Irish music as well as a large variety of waltz, fox trots, and swing have been promised by the popular Fredrichs band.

Kindergarten Sells Home In Scarsdale

When the public school kindergarten started to build their own house in their school room, they became so interested in true building construction that they asked permission of W. C. Tacket to inspect one of his new houses in Scarsdale.

As they were about to start on their journey, Mr. Ned Schwartz representing John C. Einston Co., book publishers, arrived at the school and was invited to accompany Mr. Baker and the little tots.

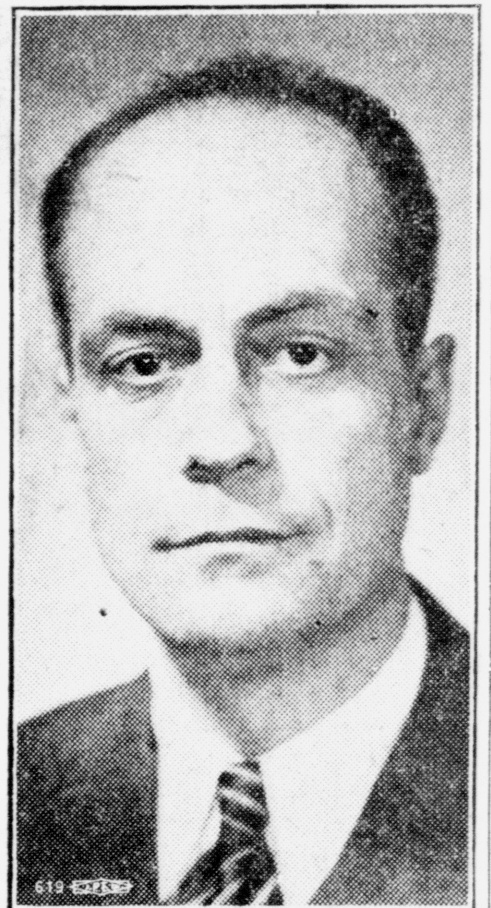

The enthusiasm of the children was so infectious that Mr. Schwartz became interested and returned two days later to purchase one of the houses. Mr. Tacket has sold a house; Mr. Schwartz will become a good neighbor, and the children of the kindergarten have demonstrated that they are good salesmen.

Mr. Tacket has not yet announced how much of the usual commission will be paid to the kindergarten fund.

Arlington Alderman Returns Incognito

Rumor has it that Alderman Walter Krause acquired such a heavy coat of tan while in Florida, Mayor Flentie did not recognize him when he returned home Thursday. Others thought that he was appearing in disguise. His voice was the only thing about him that the editor could recognize. Walter never does anything half way and he evidently went the limit in acquiring Florida sunshine.

In the meantime, his partner, Henry Kehe, is taking a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mayer, and granddaughter, Lois Jean, Northfield, were Tuesday afternoon callers at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dobbins.

"Den Dads" Meet With Cubs Pack

The Cub pack committee, composed of the officers and den dads of the Arlington Heights cub pack met at the north school March 9, to discuss further activities of the various dens and the pack. Every one of the seven dens was represented by the den dad.

Plans were made to wind up the paper drive for the year next Saturday. All parents and friends of the cubs who wish to help the boys in this activity should have their papers ready for the boys on that date. Anyone else who has papers that he would like to donate please call Mr. Shapanski, Arlington Heights 317-R, and some one will call for them.

The next meeting of the pack will be Thursday, April 13, due to the fact that the week of the regular meeting is Holy Week. On Thursday evening, April 20, a father and son cub pack dinner will be served at the north school cafeteria. All fathers and cubs should plan to be present at this first annual dinner.

The treasure hunt for the pack is planned for the last part of April. Several boys have become nine years of age since the beginning of school last fall. Several of these have expressed a desire to join with the cubs. Any boy whose age is between 9 and 12 years who wishes to become a member of his neighborhood den should call Mr. Shapanski, cub master, at his home. A place will be made for all boys and parents who are interested.

Receive "Thank You" Letters From School Boy Culprits in Georgia

Law enforcement in Arlington Heights means other things than just collecting the fine, especially when the culprits are boys. Judge C. M. Behrens received a letter from Murray Schmidt, of Dublin, Ga., this week which can be considered the sequel to the story that appeared in last week's edition regarding the three boys from Georgia whose crime excursion was interrupted by Officer Karstens.

The boys were taken back to Georgia by the chief of police of that town. They had taken some typewriters as a prank out of the school attended by them. Before long they were on their way north in a stolen car. The letter reads:

Dear Mr. Behrens:

I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate your interest in me and the way you handled our case. The school superintendent down here is helping us, too, but I failed three of my subjects this month.

The insurance company will probably press charges for the car theft, because the car owner seems to be indifferent to Dad's efforts to settle out of court.

Somewhat, I don't seem to care whether I get sent up or not, except that I would like to get my high school diploma. They won't even let us have our class rings although they have already come. I don't know whether we'll ever get them.

I'll write again some time and I want to thank you again for your kindness. Give my regards to Officer Karstens and everybody else.

Yours truly,
Murray Schmidt.

St. Peters School Notes
On Tuesday afternoon the pupils of our school were privileged to see a technicolor picture entitled "A Tour of Europe," sponsored by the Walther League Travel Bureau. It was enjoyed by everyone.
At the present time the four upper grades are making a special study of the missions of our church. The fifth and sixth grades are working on a mission project and a booklet. Before they are able to get the material they are writing mission prayers. They also drew a tree representing the Missouri synod. The teacher, "Mr. Busse, asked the children to write a play to demonstrate more thoroughly what he had taught. Each person in the room was asked to write a part of a play. One pupil, Burnett Burns, said, "I think that if each person would write a part, it would be hard to put together." As Mr. Busse agreed, he asked what she would suggest. She said she would write a play, while she did.
It is an excellent play about the Saxon immigration, something more than would be expected from a 6th grade pupil.
The seventh grade also is working on a mission play. They are looking for one suitable for performance. Since it takes quite a while to find a play suitable, they are doing other things like writing mission prayers and conversations between a minister and an unchurched person. In writing the prayers, the pupils in the grade selected Dolores Hogreve and Irene Eller's prayer.

In writing conversations, Jean Schroeder's, Myrtle Engelking's and Roland Weide's were selected. The seventh grade is continuing to do other mission activities.
The eighth grade is planning to present a panel discussion which will be supervised by Mr. Kolb. They have also written mission prayers. Mr. Kolb said that there is a prayer in the class that is exceptionally well written by Henry Heidemann.
The four upper grades are diligently studying about the missions. The reason for this is that Mr. Preuss, the seventh grade teacher, needs material for presentation at a teachers' conference which to be held in the month of May.
Monday, March 13, a newcomer came from Michigan and was received in St. Peter school. The boy's name is Frederick Hahn. He is in the 6th grade.

Nation Suffers From Religious Indifference, Dr. Maier Declares
Religious indifference is the most disturbing element on the present scene, Dr. Walter A. Maier of Concordia University, said Sunday in his coast-to-coast Lutheran Hour broadcast. He likened the wide spread "neutrality" in religion to the attitude of Pontius Pilate, who was that such neutrality often turns out to be a veiled hostility to Christian religion.

On the other hand, Dr. Maier declared religious bigotry and persecution practiced beneath the sign of the cross. Of all fanaticism he said, none is like the perversions of religious hatred. He recalled that the first martyr death on the American continent was the murder of a French Christian by a fanatic.
As the spiritual hope of our age, Dr. Maier offered the full gospel of Jesus Christ and nothing less. Pilate's epochal words: "Behold the Man," he said, have resounded through the centuries, but he deplored the tendency by which man beholds Christ merely as the author of the golden rule and the miraculous provider of sustenance, instead of "beholding Him as He stands beaten, mocked and thorn-crowned before the cynical Roman Governor." The essential Christ, he declared, is the suffering, atoning Christ.
The Lutheran theologian urged Christians throughout the country to meditate themselves to bear public testimony to the Christ of the Lenten love, particularly through lives that seriously try to practice his precepts. The damage which the churches have suffered through insincere discipleship overflows all other losses, he concluded.

Wills Filed
NORTHBROOK
The estate of the late Edward F. Klug, who died intestate in Chicago February 4, leaving $500, has been opened and his son, Edward N. Klug, of Northbrook, appointed administrator. The heirs are a daughter and two sons. The other heirs live in Wisconsin.

MORTON GROVE
The will of the late Caroline Boemmels, of Morton Grove, who died January 13, has been admitted to probate. It disposes of a $5,000 estate. Among the bequests are $200 to seven grandchildren, to be divided among them and $50 to Elsie Just, of Niles. The residue is given to her late husband's children, Frank and Mathias Boemmels, of Morton Grove, and May Rogers of Elmwood Park. Frank Boemmels is appointed executor.

HILLSIDE NEWS

Wilson P.T.A. held their meeting last Friday night with a large number attending. Milton Bollman, assistant county superintendent of schools, was guest speaker. The program committee arranged a variety of entertainment for the evening. The star of the evening was Miles Burpee, better known as Uncle Ezra. He put on a splendid show, his impersonation of Uncle Ezra, is beyond doubt the best we've ever seen. Mr. Burpee was master of ceremonies for the rest of the show, which consisted of Anna Ebitch, a talented young lady who played three selections on her piano accordion. Annaliese Dorn and Martha also entertained with a tap dance, giving a marvelous performance. Our own Melvyn Preston, with his accordion, accompanied the members with the community singing, which was part of the program. The feature of the evening was the Quiz Contest which Uncle Ezra conducted in his usual wise-cracking manner. The lucky ones received prizes. The members of the P.T.A. and school board, discussed plans for installing safety devices on the doors in the school house, which are required according to the regulations. They will continue on this subject at the next meeting. However, with the permission of the school board, the P.T.A. was permitted to install a telephone also a bulletin board for Miss Chapin's room and a globe for Miss Rapp's room. The members of the ways and means committee also erected some new cupboards in the basement of the school. All the members wish to thank the entertainers for the splendid show they put on, which made it a pleasant evening indeed. We hope they will give us the pleasure of enjoying their talents at some future date. Tickets are now being sold for the luncheon and card party for the benefit of Wilson P.T.A. March 24, at the State and Rand club, 8 p.m.

The "500" club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Clark. After the game, a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. John Malen won first prize. Next Tuesday the "500" club will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Gettner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kukla from Chicago, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carlino. Mildred Zimmerman and Buster MacGuire were married last Friday by justice of the peace Gilbert Klein. After the ceremony a reception was held at Bill Simon's Arlington club.

John Termain, the talented young daughter of the Hamiltons, is home ill with laryngitis. She recently appeared at the Chicago Theatre. We wish her a speedy recovery. Laurence Hildebrandt had quite a shaking up last Sunday night when his car took a somersault and landed in a ditch upside down at State and Rand rds. The ditch was full of water and Mr. Hildebrandt was all wet and badly bruised by the time Bob Gettner and Fred Hanson waded through the water and pried the door loose and helped him out. The sheriff police came along and took him for first aid before taking him home.

The members of the ways and means committee also erected some new cupboards in the basement of the school.

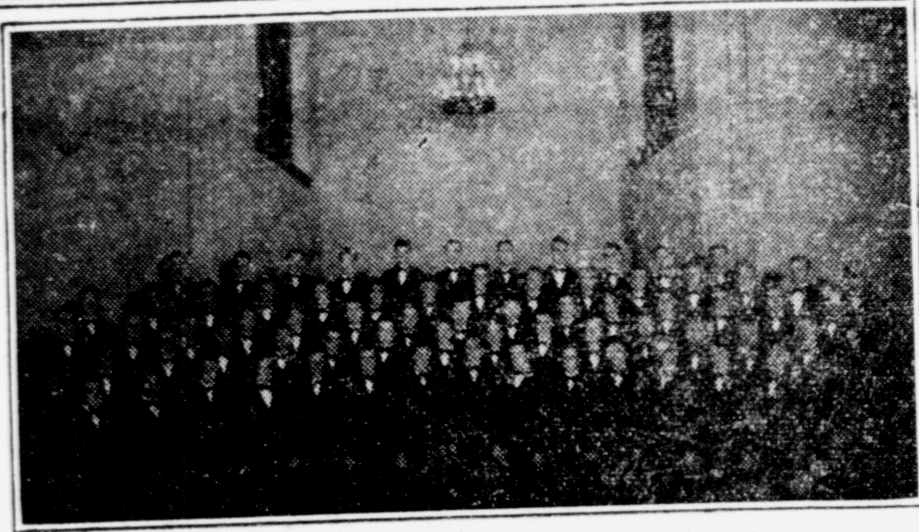

Tractor Show Attracts 300 Farmers Monday

More than 300 farmers were on hand Monday to witness the Massey-Harris tractor and farm implement show at State Road, 115 North State rd., Arlington Heights. The show, a four hour moving and talking, featuring the special points of this popular line of machinery was sponsored by Ted Shimp, local dealer in Arlington Heights territory. As a part of the program a luncheon of sandwiches and coffee was served the group consuming over 2,000 sandwiches and 16 gallons of coffee, according to Phil Engelsing who is in charge of the Massey-Harris implement line here. Factory representatives who directed the program declared that this was the largest group to attend such a show so far this year. Farmers showed enthusiasm about the many new and practical features incorporated in the new Massey-Harris tractor as well as the Clippier combine which harvests everything from bluegrass, to beans. A full line of Massey-Harris farm tools were on display for inspection and Mr. Siemro reports several sales made on the floor. Besides the Massey-Harris line, State Road Motors is a dealer for Dodge and Plymouth cars and trucks.

Busse Will Show Travel Movies

Public Invited to Special Scout Program

On Monday evening, March 20, at the regular Scout meeting hour at the public school building, Mr. Wm. Busse, Jr., will show his travel movies. This program arranged for the local Boy Scout troop is to be open to attendance by any interested Mount Prospect residents. The program is planned to begin at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Busse has kindly consented to show the pictures taken on his trip made both last year and this winter. The pictures will include views taken in Guatemala and Central America and pictures taken last year of Bryce Canyon, Grand Canyon, Zion National Park, Catalina Island, Yellowstone National Park and the Black Hills. These pictures will be both extremely interesting and of great educational value and should attract a full attendance of Scouts, their parents and friends, and other interested people. The program is free to all who wish to attend.

Concordia Seminary Chorus In Chicago Concert Sunday

Chicago music lovers will be given an opportunity to hear one of the outstanding male choruses in the country when the Concordia Seminary chorus of St. Louis will present a concert in Lane Technical high school auditorium Sunday evening, March 19, at 8:30. This chorus of 80 male voices, representing the largest Protestant theological seminary in the United States, is under the direction of William B. Heyne, who will be remembered in Chicago as director of the eminent St. Louis A Cappella Choir, which appeared in concert in the spring of 1937. The Concordia Seminary group has given repeated programs in this city and has been well received every time. In addition to its appearance in Chicago, the chorus will sing in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, Milwaukee and St. Paul. This group of young students of the ministry includes in its number the well-known Lutheran Hour chorus, conducted by Norman Ginnapp. These singers, who have gained renown through their work on the coast-to-coast radio program of the Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Hour, will also appear on the program. Wherever the Concordia Seminary chorus has sung it has met with the enthusiastic acclaim of critics. The technique of the group is recognized as exceptional, and perfect balance and blend of voices, accuracy in dynamics and freedom and flexibility of expression combine to make unusual effect in choral singing possible. Mr. Heyne, the conductor of the singers, is widely recognized as an able musician and a genius in choral ensemble leadership. His direction of the St. Louis A Cappella Choir has brought that group great acclaim. This same ability has made the Concordia Seminary chorus one of the finest of its kind in the United States. Mr. Heyne, who was appointed director of the chorus in 1926, has developed a group skilled in tonal shading and genuine feeling. This year's concert tour of the chorus is to commemorate the centennial of the emigration of the forefathers of the Missouri Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, when body the group represents. The Missouri Synod had its beginning when 450 Saxons came to America in 1839. The organization since then grown to number 1,500,000 people. Celebrations commemorating this anniversary are being held throughout the country, and a part of the program of the Concordia Seminary chorus will be devoted especially to this.

About Mount Prospect

Junice Ivers was a guest of Adeline Busse, Sunday. Mrs. H. W. Carlson entertained the Fortnightly club last Wednesday. St. John's Auxiliary gave a stork shower for Mrs. Boyland last Friday afternoon. Deb meeting was held at the home of Winifred Wensley in Arlington, yesterday. Mrs. M. Madison, due to an injury a few months ago, has now got her foot in a cast. This Friday night the Irish holiday will be celebrated by the Vets at their own club house. Way in the future, to be exact, on May 6, Arlington will hold its Junior-Senior Prom, the highlight of the school year. We're mighty proud of Marion Busse, who is holding her own in class D bowling, third place, I believe. Our Mt. Prospect public school is looking for a piano donation. So if you have one you would like to pass on, it would be appreciated. Mr. Alton was involved in a very serious accident last week in Chicago. He is dangerously ill. We're all wishing for his entire and speedy recovery. A few attractions coming up are the Senior party at the Arlington high school on March 24, "Lunatics At Large" and consists of four actors entirely of the Senior class. Then on April 15, the Boy Builders will hold their dance at the Mt. Prospect Country Club. Miss Virginia Gould was swimming at Maine township last Tuesday and injured her head when she struck the side of the pool. A few stitches were taken and the damage declared slight. Mr. John Kroll, our local tailor, is seriously ill in St. Frances hospital, Evanston, where he was taken last Saturday evening. He has received two blood transfusions and everyone wishes him an early and complete recovery. Mr. Fred C. Mueller, 215 So. Main st., was pleasantly surprised on his 74th birthday when relatives and members of the V. F. W. Post and Auxiliary of Arlington Heights, came in to help him celebrate. Mr. Mueller was presented with a lovely smoking stand. Talk about freak accidents. After forty years a bartender, William Krue was injured last Saturday evening while tapping a barrel of beer, when the barrel rebounded with terrific force and struck "Bill" in the forehead. Outside of a bad bruise, a discolored eye and a bandage that makes him look like the "Spirit of '76," he is his old jovial self. One of the surest and most popular signs of spring has come to be the annual St. Patrick's night dance held by the V. F. W. each seventh month of March. This year's party falls on Friday night, this week. Gil Busse's Orchestra will furnish modern music. The V. F. W. Ladies' Auxiliary are in charge of refreshments and the usual V. F. W. welcome will be extended to all. This is the third annual V. F. W. St. Patrick's party and it is expected to surpass all previous affairs in gaiety and color. Mobilization Program Draws 350 Boy Scouts

Troike Tells Of Experiences In Polish Troops

The annual mobilization program of the Boy Scouts of America of the Northwest Suburban Council was held last Saturday, where an enthusiastic group of over 350 scouts and scouters assembled for the day. Mr. John Troike, special National Scout Commissioner and National Director of Youth Activities for the Polish Roman Catholic Union, gave an interesting talk to the scouts telling of his experiences in scouting in a number of foreign countries, particularly Poland. He emphasized the splendid troop camping in which Polish Scouts excel and the World Brotherhood of Friendship through the World Jamborees of Scouting. The entire assembly of scouts was divided into seven sections and each section participated in one of the hour programs. The Scouts participated in a period of drill which gave the scouts some very good instruction and practice in the principles of drill. They then participated in a period of games which was greatly enjoyed by all. A swimming period was conducted where every scout had the opportunity of swimming in the opportunity of swimming in the Maine township high school state championship swimming pool. A moving picture show was presented by E. J. Anderson in which the scouts learned the story of steel, a picture showing the manufacture of steel from the ore to the finished article and the "Romance of the Reaper" showing a development of the McCormick Reaper and its influence on agriculture methods. Herbert Bart of the recreational division of the Chicago park district and assisted by Roy Anderson and Anita Redman, member of the Portage Park Chapter C.P.D. Archery Guild, conducted an archery demonstration which was interesting to all scouts. This included besides the demonstration of shooting, a brief history of archery and an explanation of making archery tackle. A First Aid demonstration was given by L. M. Hank of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, with special emphasis on artificial respiration and a demonstration on the use of the respirator. Scoutmaster A. C. Wolf of Oak Park presented a fine demonstration of pack making and patrol and troop camping. He exhibited a portable canoe and various pack, cooking and sleeping outfits for use in camping on extended trips. Much of the success of the program was due to the splendid cooperation of all of the scouters serving as leaders in the various parts of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gieseke Leave On Extended Trip South and West

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gieseke left Arlington Heights in the Wednesday storm for the sunshine of the south. Their first stop was St. Louis, from which place they will continue on to Mexico City, stopping when they feel inclined. Of course the San Francisco fair is on the itinerary. "We do not know how long we will be gone," stated Mr. Gieseke "but we are not going to be in a hurry at any time."

Many Attend Funeral of Geo. Steil, Truck Gardener Official

George Steil, who has been secretary of Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers Association 25 years, and has occupied a prominent part in the efforts of truck gardeners to secure equitable marketing conditions passed away Friday after a serious illness that had kept him in his bed a number of weeks.

Reverend Julius Toepel, neighbor and close friend of Mr. Steil for 33 years officiated at the funeral services in St. Matthews church, Monday, March 13. He chose his text from the 24th psalm, "In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul," and delivered a wonderfully comforting sermon, to the bereaved family and the throngs who filled the church and school auditorium to overflowing. Mr. Frederick Hunt was the soloist at the church. A brief service at the home at 733 Laurel ave., Des Plaines, where the family moved in 1935, preceded the one at the church.

Officers and counsel of the two organizations which Mr. Steil had served so long faithfully were honorary pallbearers. These included August Gaweke, Walter Saxe, Thomas Hockstra, Louis Schroeder, Emil Eggert, Henry Gerken, Edw. D. Laxler and Edwin Walsh. Acting pallbearers were six nephews, Edward Nissen, Elmer Kahl, Christ Jacobson, Louis E. Saxe, George Koelcher and Harold Plimern. The body was laid to rest in the beautiful Ridgewood, Mr. Walter C. Oehler was in charge.

Mr. Steil is mourned by his sorrowing widow, 3 daughters, Edna Steil, Mabel Wamke and Althea, five sons, Elmer, Clarence, Alfred, Erwin and Roy; three daughters and two sons-in-law; seven granddaughters and one grandson and many other relatives and a numberless host of friends.

GEORGE F. STEIL

A rich full life has reached its end. His work on earth is over. We've lost a husband, father, friend. The ache is deep and sore. The heavenly Father called him home. To realms of peace and rest; And we who linger here must say, "Amen, His will is best."

The death of George Steil on March 10 at the Lutheran Deaconess hospital in Chicago, came with a suddenness that shocked and stunned not only the community where he lived, but the entire county and much of the state. Folks had known that he was ill, that he had suffered a light stroke late in December which left him paralyzed on one side. They knew he had spent five weeks at the hospital where under expert care he had improved to such an extent that he was able to be removed to his home, but few were aware that a sudden relapse had sent him back to the hospital where in less than two days a final stroke closed the curtain on a life which had been dedicated to helping others. His family were at his bedside when the end came at 10:30 Friday morning.

Mr. Steil's 64 years were spent in Maine township. He was born July 17, 1874 on the Steil homestead, on Milwaukee avenue, the oldest son of the late John H. and Mary, nee Rubo. Three younger brothers died in childhood. He attended the little red one room school next to the Steil farm and received his religious instruction in St. John's Lutheran school at Niles, where in 1887 he was confirmed by Pastor Brauer. He was united in marriage with Althea Kahl on November 25, 1899 in St. Matthews Lutheran church which was then three years old. Pastor Carl Buenger performed the ceremony and the family have since attended and been members of that congregation.

Four daughters and five sons came to bless the Steil home, the eldest daughter, Lillian, passing away in her sixteenth year. Five of the remaining children are married and have their own homes. Alfred living on the homestead. The three youngest are still at home.

Mr. Steil was a lover of nature and sincerely enjoyed his occupation of truck gardening. In that industry he recognized the advantages of organization and joined the Cook County Truck Gardeners & Farmers Association which was organized in 1902. He was later elected secretary which office he has held for 25 years. With the advent of motor trucks, horse-drawn vehicles became impractical for the farmers and the need for auto insurance became apparent. In 1917 the Cook County Farmers Mutual Insurance company was organized. Mr. Steil was one of its organizers and held the office of Secretary-treasurer until his death. He was also on the board of directors of both organizations. He carried on his duties in this capacity at his home in addition to his farming business which was established at 721 Pearson street in Des Plaines.

Through his activities in the above named groups, Mr. Steil came into contact with people from every walk of life. He was a student of human nature and an exceptionally good judge of character and felt equally at home with the humblest tillers of the soil or a group of university trained educators. He was a student of the advantages of higher education but the school of experience was a good teacher. He took an active interest in civic and community improvements and gave his loyal support to many worthy projects. Ever modest and unassuming he gave to all the same wholehearted, sincere friendship, proof of which was manifested by the seemingly never-ending line of folk who filed by as he lay in state, for one last glimpse of the friend who was loved and respected by all.

People acquired the habit of coming to him for help and advice. He never had an unkind word for anyone, was never harsh in his methods but in his own quiet, gentle way would find a way to help solve the problem or make the burden a little lighter. In his home life he was a patient and thoughtful provider and a loving guide and counselor, putting others first and never thinking of himself. His was a spirit that never grew old and he enjoyed the company of young people as much as those his own age. True, he had many years yet to live and his death is an irreparable loss which left broken and aching hearts, but in passing he leaves a far richer reward, Heaven, with its eternal rest and peace.

Des Plaines Tavern Control Under Scrutiny

State Commission Expected To Grant Rejected License

The tavern control policy of the City of Des Plaines came under the scrutiny of the State Liquor Commission this week and a decision is expected from that body which may have far-reaching effects on local tavern control, not only for this municipality, but for other cities and villages as well. Sitting last Friday in Chicago the state commission heard testimony from both sides of what appears to be a test case involving the Des Plaines Bowling Palace whose proprietor was denied a liquor license and the Des Plaines Liquor Commission, consisting of Mayor Hobart Abbe, A. W. Lemke and Walter L. Dopheide. At the conclusion of the hearing the state commission announced that a five day period would be required to study the evidence and prepare the decision.

City Expected To Lose

Attorney Kenneth G. Meyer, city attorney for Des Plaines and ex-officio attorney for the local liquor commission, said Wednesday morning that there was hardly any doubt from what occurred at the hearing what the commission's attitude would be and it is expected that Des Plaines authorities will be ordered to reverse their former position and grant the Des Plaines Bowling Palace a license.

The number of taverns in Des Plaines is limited to 15 by ordinance and the license fee is $500 a year. The ordinance directs that all applications must be in and approved and the fee paid by January 1. It further sets certain standards that taverns must meet before their applications can be accepted.

The Des Plaines Bowling Palace made application and deposit of the $500 fee January 3. Three other applications came in later, the last on January 11. All places were inspected and found to comply with the requirements of the city ordinance. On January 30, the Des Plaines Bowling Palace was notified that its application had been rejected. The rejected applicant then appealed to the State Liquor Commission on the ground that since it met the demands of the city ordinance and had made application before three other applicants who had been accepted, the local liquor control body had exercised unlawful discrimination in refusing it a license.

Mayor Makes Statement

When questioned on this point, Mayor Abbe stated that it had never occurred to him or any other member of the local commission that such preference was illegal and it had been the practice of the Des Plaines control commission to make a final choice between applicants on basis of their investment and their ability to carry on a tavern business.

He said that at the close of 1938 additional requirements were made upon the local taverns among which was the provision that each such place of business should have two toilets. This provision was incorporated in an amendment to the present liquor ordinance and became effective December 18. Since only 12 days remained in the old year and four taverns announced that they could not make the necessary corrections on so short a notice the local liquor commission extended the deadline date for the new 1939 licenses from January 1 to January 30.

According to Attorney Meyer, four taverns were thus accepted. All had re-applied for licenses and had deposited their fees, but it was impossible to grant the permits until the new arrangement had been complied with. The state commission, however, held that the limit of 15 had not been reached when the applicant in question was denied a permit and since this applicant was able to comply with every requirement of the Des Plaines

Mass Meeting Nominates at Mt. Prospect

At a caucus meeting held at the Mt. Prospect village hall Friday three candidates were chosen to run for election as members of the Board of Trustees for terms of four years each. The three are Edwin Haberkamp, incumbent, and John D. Binkley and William J. Mortimer.

The terms of three members of the existing Board will expire in April—namely S. W. Harrington, Chas. R. Hennix, Jr., and Edwin Haberkamp. Haberkamp indicated a willingness to serve for another year while Harrington and Hennix have decided not to run again—necessitating the nomination and election of two new candidates.

Edwin Haberkamp is finishing his second two-year term on the Village Board, having been originally elected in the spring of 1935. He is in business for himself locally, operating a greenhouse on North Elmhurst st., and lives in this community all his life.

John D. Binkley has been a resident of Mt. Prospect since 1928 and lives in his own home at 405 S. Hi Lusi st., in addition to which he owns other property in the Village. For the past 14 years he has been associated with the Chicago Title and Trust Co., at present serving in the capacity of assistant secretary of that company.

William J. Mortimer, now residing at 204 Walpella ave., has been a resident of the Village for four years. He is chief engineer of drainage, County Highway department and has served in that department for 14 years.

Chicagoan Dies From Train-Auto Crash North of Wheeling

Warren Monahan, 1419 Fargo ave., Chicago, seriously injured Friday when his automobile was demolished by the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Hiawatha train at the Cook-Lake county line rd. near Wheeling, died at 5 Saturday morning in Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines.

Monahan, who was 40 years old, received a skull fracture and other injuries and never regained consciousness. The crossing at which the accident occurred is unprotected, according to Cook county highway police who investigated.

The speeding train, en route from Minneapolis to Chicago, demolished Monahan's automobile. He was thrown out of the debris, however, a moment after the crash.

ACCIDENT ON HIGHWAY

Mrs. Stella Jones, 216 HiLusi St., Mt. Prospect, was attempting a left hand turn Friday at the Benjamin Electric Co. plant, when her car was hit by an auto being driven by the manager of the Leader Store, Arlington Heights.

Injuries were confined to the autos.

ordinance at the time he filed, he should not have been rejected. In the event that the state commission makes a decision in favor of the Des Plaines Bowling Palace and orders that it be granted a license, then one of the other licenses will have to be revoked, Mayor Abbe said. This will be done by calling a meeting of the local liquor commission whose members will sit behind closed doors. If it is mandatory, as was declared, to grant licenses according to the order in which applicants filed, then it would appear that the last to make such application, in this case the applicant who filed on January 11, would be the one to lose the permit.

Along with the criticism, Des Plaines officials were also proffered a bouquet or two from the state commission. The liquor ordinance was found to be well written and properly drawn up. Des Plaines taverns in every case were found to be properly operated and to conform with state regulations in every respect.

John E. Barrett, Wheeling Civic Leader Is Dead

Funeral services for John E. Barrett, 73 years old, an active and respected citizen of Wheeling, were held Tuesday afternoon at the home where several hundred people were gathered to pay their last respects. Rev. D. C. Morrison of the Wheeling church officiated, assisted by Rev. W. Weir of Deerfield, who read the scripture and Rev. Burdages of Green Valley, Illinois, a former pastor of the Barretts, who gave a beautiful tribute to christian friendship.

Several local selections were rendered by Rev. H. J. Wiegand, formerly of Wheeling, Mrs. C. Schuessler and Miss A. Schneider accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Holtje. The many beautiful floral tributes were silent testimony to the love for the beautiful held by Mr. Barrett, and which he continually sought to find in his fellow-man, in song, in verse and in the realm of nature. About fifty cars composed the procession of those who accompanied the body to the final resting place beside his grandson, in Ridgewood cemetery.

John E. Barrett was born at Arlington, Illinois, Feb. 8, 1866, the son of Andrew and Elizabeth Kenney Barrett, natives of Belfast, Ireland. Of a family of ten children only four survive. They are one brother, Albert Barrett, of Millersville, and three sisters, Mrs. Mattie Denton, of Billings, Oklahoma, Mrs. Lydie Simpson, of Oklawaha, and Mrs. Margaret Eaton, of Decatur.

When he was a child his parents moved to Christian county where he grew to manhood and united with the Millersville Methodist church. On Sept. 16, 1890 he was married to Miss Minnie Courtwright at Arlington. They settled on a farm near there, and Mr. Barrett transferred his church affiliations to the First Presbyterian church of that town, where he served as elder and Sunday school superintendent.

In the spring of 1902 he bought and moved to a farm near Sugar Grove, and later they moved to Plano where they lived for three years. Twenty-eight years ago they purchased the farm on Milwaukee avenue, four miles north of Wheeling where Mr. Barrett passed away last Saturday at the age of 73 years.

Mr. Barrett's life in Wheeling has been marked by his activities in church, civic and selfless work. His genial nature and his thorough understanding of farmers' problems soon established him as a leader, and he served several terms both as president and director of the Lake County Farmers Institute.

In 1915 Mr. Barrett was instrumental in organizing the first Lake County Farm Bureau and was elected the first president.

He acted as chairman of local Red Cross work during the World War. In more recent years he had been active in promoting and aiding organization work in the Boy Scout movement, having been chairman of the local troop committee until prevented by his recent illness.

In his interest in Better Education he served as school director in the local school district and it was partly thru his efforts that the district school was raised to the high standard which it now enjoys. Notwithstanding all of these activities he found plenty of time to devote to his Lord, through the channels of the church, entering into the work of the Wheeling Presbyterian church with his family, soon after coming to the community. He entered wholeheartedly in the whole program of the church, serving in the church school, the choir, as well as the congregation.

In 1915 he took a lead in the enlarging of the church through raising and finishing of basement rooms, and numerous improvements.

ments since, found him always ready to accept a large share both in labor and financial help.

Two years ago, with "recovery" still considerably around the corner he launched a much needed movement for the installation of new pews in the church and improvements on the parsonage which he helped faithfully to carry through. At the time of his death he was deeply interested in improvements necessary in view of the coming celebration of the 75th anniversary of the church.

Mr. Barrett served as elder in the Wheeling church from 1921 until his death and including service in former churches, he held the office of elder for 40 years. Mr. Barrett was chosen delegate to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church U. S. A. at Syracuse, New York in 1936, a singular honor bestowed only on those who have achieved it through earnest endeavor and devoted service.

A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Barrett built a beautiful new home on a part of their farm where they have lived since retiring from active interest in farm work. For the past few winters they have been going to Florida, enjoying early enough to get their beautiful flower garden in order for the summer.

It was on that return trip from the south a year ago that Mr. Barrett was stricken with the ailment which in time caused his death. It is believed that the tragic death of his idolized and only grandchild, John Carolan Barrett a year ago may have, through grief and shock, brought about a condition which undermined his health.

For the past year he put up a valiant fight, never losing hope and patience, and never ceasing to maintain a creative interest in his family and his fellowmen.

He leaves his devoted wife, Minnie B. Barrett, three sons, Lloyd E. Barrett of Waukegan, Herbert C. Barrett of Prairie View and Harold Barrett of Des Plaines; one brother, three sisters besides other relatives and a host of friends.

These have lost a devoted husband, a kind, indulgent father and loyal and true brother.

The community has also sustained the loss of a noble character, a great leader and a staunch friend. His sterling qualities have so endeared him and entrenched him in the hearts of this community that his example will fortify many, to carry on the great work he has so nobly inspired.

20th Birthday

Fete of Legion

(Mt. Prospect Story)

Posts and departments of the American Legion throughout the country will participate in a collective birthday party Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, commemorating the birth of the Legion twenty years ago in Paris.

A patriotic conference to emphasize national defense and Americanism will be held Thursday and Friday in the Hotel Sherman by 750 members of the American Legion auxiliary of the department of Illinois.

Mt. Prospect Unit, too, is assisting in the program of this great organization. At a regular meeting of the Auxiliary held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. Dutton, many items of business were discussed. Mrs. Verret announced complete plans for the annual card party to be held on April 14. A beautiful chenille bed spread has been purchased, same to be given to some lucky person. Members have promised wholehearted support to the success of this annual party.

Mrs. H. Carlson, membership chairman, is urging membership. All members should feel themselves one of her committee, and explain to eligible ladies the advantages of belonging to this worthy organization.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Ferdinand Kern

Mrs. Ferd Leetzer Kern, of Arlington Heights, died early Tuesday morning at her home, 122 S. Highland ave., from bronchial pneumonia. The funeral is being held Thursday afternoon at the Lauterburg & Oehler funeral chapel, 111 W. Campbell st.

Mrs. Kern had a large acquaintance throughout Arlington Heights and vicinity. Possessed with natural ability in the care of the sick and afflicted she followed in America the work that she entered upon early in her life in Germany. She called it scientific massage. She had studied and worked under Dr. Huebner in the clinic maintained by the University of Bonn, Germany. She attained an understanding of nervous disorders and many a physician often sent to her patients that needed the skillful hands of Mrs. Kern.

She was born in Coblenz, Germany, July 3, 1878. There she was married to Hans Kern. The world war took her son and with the occupation of the Rhineland by the French, she had to close the private sanitarium she maintained. She worked in various clinics, but conditions became so bad that she decided in 1923 to come to America, where she married Ferdinand Kern.

Mr. and Mrs. Kern came to Palatine in 1925 and a year later in Arlington Heights, which has since been her home. She leaves besides her husband, one daughter, Elsie Veltin in Germany.

Fred Breitzmann

Last rites were held March 7 for a long-time resident of Glenview, Fred Breitzmann, who passed away Mar. 4 at St. Francis hospital, Evanston, after a brief illness. Services were held at Immanuel Lutheran church, of which the late Mr. Breitzmann was a charter member. Rev. Paul E. Meyer officiated and interment was in the church cemetery.

Born July 22, 1878, in Mecklenburg, Schwering, Germany, Fred Breitzmann, as a child of six years, came to this country with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Breitzmann, who settled in the Glenview vicinity. On March 1, 1885, he and Miss Frieda Gensow were married and became the parents of five children, all of whom survive their father. With the death of his parents, Mr. Breitzmann took over the farm on Hupp road and was engaged in farming until 1916, when he moved with his family to a home on Winnetka rd. Mrs. Breitzmann passed away July 6, 1930.

For several years, the late Mr. Breitzmann had made his home in Evanston with a son, Fred J. Breitzmann, but at the time of his death he was residing at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Amanda Baeter, on Wagner rd.

Besides the son and daughter, survivors are another daughter, Mrs. Ida Lass of Wagner rd., Louis Breitzmann of Northbrook and August Breitzmann, who resides at the Baeter home. There are also 14 grandchildren, six of whom were pallbearers at the funeral. They are William, Arthur and Herbert Baeter and Albert, Edward and Edwin Breitzmann.

Mrs. Henry Rugen

Funeral services for Mrs. Henry Rugen, 81 years old, Northbrook, were held last Friday at her home, 2043 Walter ave., Glenview. She had been a lifelong resident of Northbrook. The Rev. Armin Bizer conducted the rites in St. Peter's Evangelical church. Interment was in the church cemetery. Mrs. Rugen died March 6.

The deceased was born Mary Meier on December 18, 1857 in the old Meier homestead on Sherman rd. Louis and Regina Meier, her parents, preceded her in death. She became the wife of Henry Rugen on May 9, 1882. One daughter, Rose, was born of this union. She is the present Mrs. Alvin Rogman of Winnetka.

Surviving are the husband and daughter, the deceased's son-in-law, Mr. Rogman, and three grandchildren, Pearl, Jane and Robert Rogman.

Mrs. Emma Fasse

Mrs. Emma Fasse, nee Berlin of 2543 N. Bernard st., Chicago, passed away at an Evanston hospital Wednesday afternoon, March 8, at the age of 72 years, 2 months and 7 days.

Mrs. Fasse was born January 1, 1861, at Plina Grove. On January 12, 1893 she was united in marriage to Mr. George Fasse at the Fairfield Lutheran church. This couple made their home on their farm near Fairfield church, Elia township.

Mr. Fasse passed away in 1922 and in December, 1925, Mrs. Fasse and her family went to Chicago. She leaves to mourn her departure five living children, George, Henry, Ida, August, and Walter; one daughter-in-law; one son-in-law and six grandchildren; one sister-in-law. Two children, Mrs. Emma Hapke, age 29 and Edwin Fasse, age 24, preceded their mother in death.

Funeral services were last Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m. at her residence in Chicago and at 2:45 p. m. at the Fairfield Lutheran church, Rev. Gerth officiating. Interment was in Fairfield Lutheran cemetery with arrangements by Karstens.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our relatives, neighbors and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy in our hour of bereavement and the many and beautiful flowers. We are also humbly and sincerely grateful to Reverend Toepel for his words of comfort, Mr. Sanders and Mr. Hunt for their music, Chief Lester Laird and his staff for the police escort and Mr. Oehler for his efficient services.

Mrs. George Steil and family.

Why Horse Is Called 'Dobbin'
"Dobbin" is a general or familiar name for any horse, especially an ordinary draft or farm horse. The name "Dobbin" was so widely used in England as a pet name for horses that it became a general nickname for the entire equine species. It was a familiar name for a horse in the time of Shakespeare. In the "Merchant of Venice," which was first printed in 1596, Old Gobbo says to Launcelot: "Thou hast got more hair on thy chin, than Dobbin my philhorse has on his tail." "Dobbin" is a diminutive of the proper name "Dob," which is a variation of "Robin" and "Rob," which in turn are variations of "Robert."

Price Fixing Has Hurt Dairymen Hughes Believes

Higher Milk Price Decreases Consumption, Increases Production

BULLETIN: Butter Buying Ended
"Since the following article has been written, we notice that the government has stopped buying butter and that the price is falling from 25c where it has been pegged for some time, to 21c and 22c per pound," said Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

"In the dairy sections at this time," states Farm Adviser, C. A. Hughes, "there is a strong sentiment for fixing the price on milk as the solution for the milk problem. We wish that fixing the price of something would solve these various intricate problems that we have but we find that you can fix a price but you cannot make people buy at that price and also a number of other things happen at the same time. Three of these other things that have happened in states were milk prices have been fixed are:

Consumption Decreases
"Wisconsin recently fixed their milk prices by law. One of the effects that has been noticed by various cities of Wisconsin is that as an average milk consumption has decreased 10% in 1938 over 1930.

"Actually the dairy farmer has been under a modified price fixing program for the past few years. The A.A.A. has constantly been buying butter on the market and holding the prices for butter about level. It is agreed by all concerned that if these huge quantities of butter had not been removed from the market that our milk prices would have gone considerably lower.

Production Increases
"One of the things that we note that is happening at the present time is that the number of dairy calves are increasing very rapidly. In about two or three more years we will have one of the largest cow populations we have had for a long time. This means more milk on the market.

"Another thing that is happening is that the close-in dairy farmer is losing his fluid milk sales and the consumption of evaporated milk has increased from 13.2 pounds to 16.2 pounds per capita. This means that the farmer who is back further on cheaper land and selling milk for evaporation is supplying the market that is being lost by the fluid milk producers.

Oil Used
"In 1937 we had the highest capita consumption of oleomargarine that we have ever had. It was twice as high as before the World War. That year 3.1 pounds of oleomargarine was used per person. During the last year or two a much better grade of oleomargarine has come on the market and is selling at about one-half the price of butter.

"Just at the present time everybody is saying why not simplify everything and pass a law governing the prices of agricultural commodities. The dairy farmer has represented the group opposed to the A.A.A. program and price fixing has been demanded straight through. Consequently the A.A.A. program has yielded to the dairymen's request and have bought up their surpluses without asking him to control his production.

Dairy Farmer Hurt
"While the dairy farmers prices are still out of line we believe what has happened has been worse for the dairy farmers than for the grain farmers. The dairy farmer is increasing milk cows of all kinds and descriptive irrespective of kind and disease conditions. Consumers with low income are beginning to buy substitutes and actually less dairy products are being used now than before.

"We fear very much that these small attempts at price fixing for the dairy man is putting him in a worse shape than if he had adopted some kind of a production control method. For the individual dairy man we cannot think of any better plan than to secure for himself a high productive herd with probably smaller numbers and to check freedom from disease.

Bangs Disease
"On May 1 all federal payments toward eradicating bangs disease will be withdrawn from those states that do not have state appropriations. Illinois does not have such appropriations and we imagine from all reports that we hear from Springfield that such appropriations will not be forthcoming this year.

Check Milk Tests
"A number of farmers have asked for some kind of a means of checking the test on their milk that they are selling. Anything of this sort will be difficult and must be used with a great deal of discretion. However, if enough farmers want this service we will try and give it to them in the best way that we can. On the evening of Wednesday, March 15, at Arlington Heights Farm Bureau office, this question was taken up. At the Blue Island Farm Bureau office the same question was taken up Thursday, March 16.

Four Hundred To Cooperate In AAA Says H. Gewecke

50 Per Cent Increase In Membership, Records Show

According to the records that the A.A.A. office has in north Cook county there will apparently be 400 north Cook cooperators for 1939. Henry Gewecke, member of the committee, says that a large number of farmers are cooperating for the first time. Apparently the number for north Cook will run about 400 members which is about a 50% increase from that of last year.

"There are a few," states Mr. Gewecke, "who think that the government should not pay farmers for cooperation with the A.A.A. However, farmers have lost sight of the fact that for a great many years they have been working under a system where they have been paying tribute to a protective system that has given them nothing in return.

"For instance, if a farmer bought a suit of clothes he paid about $10.00 extra; for a pair of shoes about $1.20 extra; and for a hat about $1.00 extra—to maintain the prices that industry has been asking and that labor has been demanding. In return he received nothing.

"Therefore, as long as this system is maintained we feel that farmers in justice are entitled to all the benefit payments they get under the A.A.A. and some more besides. This is not nearly enough to compensate for the extra prices the farmers have to pay for goods which they buy that are raised in price through the various types of legislation which we have had for a great many years."

Tests Show Value of Vaccines For Sleep Sickness

Advise Vaccination In Coming Season

Re-vaccination of horses for sleeping sickness this spring will do no harm, but whether or not it will be necessary depends upon the results of future tests, it is reported by staff members of the division of animal pathology and hygiene, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Results reported by 215 Illinois veterinarians covering the vaccination of more than 70,000 horses last summer indicate that the tick embryo vaccine is quite efficient. Less than one horse in 400 developed the disease following treatment, and it is believed that vaccination should be done during the coming season.

Evidence obtained in tests conducted by the division of animal pathology and hygiene shows that horses vaccinated last August with the tick embryo vaccine, two-dose treatment, are highly immune up to and through January of this year or over a period of a little more than five months.

However results obtained in the five months immunity tests have no bearing on results to be obtained on horses exposed at seven, nine and twelve months, staff members explained. Further tests will be made to determine how long the immunity induced by vaccine will extend. In the meantime, horse owners are advised that re-vaccination will do no harm.

Furthermore, it is recommended that horse owners consult veterinarians with reference to preventive measures including the control of insects which are recognized as potential factors in the spread of disease. The destruction of breeding places of flies and mosquitoes is a very definite part of the control of sleeping sickness in horses. Therefore, a general clean-up of the premises is recommended.

As fly time approaches fly spray can be used to advantage, and horses on pasture can be painted with special preparations, formulas for which may be obtained by consulting the local veterinarians or by writing the College of Agriculture at Urbana.

Although insect control is important, horse owners are advised not to place complete confidence in insect control procedures since they have definite limitations.

Portable Irrigation Systems

Sears Roebuck announce portable irrigating systems costing from $298 to $750. It will cover one acre with one inch of water in from 6 to 20 hours. Based on a seven year period the cost is $10 per acre per year. Fuel costs run from 4c to 7c per hour. It will keep plants safe 5 to 7 degrees below freezing. It is light and portable and good for from 4 to 25 acres.

Meaning Of Unemployment State Insurance

Fifth in a series of five weekly articles on what unemployment compensation means to Illinois workers.

When Unemployment Compensation benefits are paid to Illinois workers after next July 1, the State department of Labor headed by Director Martin L. Durkin will put into effect a coordinated program for meeting the present day social problem of unemployment.

Not only will the State pay cash benefits to jobless workers whose former employers contributed to the State job insurance fund, but the State also will try to find these workers jobs through the Illinois State Employment Service.

Most persons who know the spirit of the American worker, believe that every American citizen would rather have a job than receive benefits—even when such benefits are a matter of right and are not charity or a dole.

At the present time, Director Durkin is coordinating the activities of the Illinois State Employment Service and the Division of Unemployment Compensation so that these two important branches of the State Government will be ready to throw their entire resources behind the job assurance program in July.

The first thing an unemployed person who has worked for an employer who paid job insurance contributions to the State will be required to do to get benefits after July 1, will be to register with the State Employment Service office nearest his home.

Interviewers in the Employment Service office will find out what kind of work the man or woman can do and the Employment Service will try to find a job for the worker.

If the Employment Service finds a suitable job for an unemployed person and the individual refuses to take the job, the law provides that benefits may be withheld as long as five weeks. A similar penalty also applies to persons who quit their jobs without good cause and apply for benefits. These penalty weeks would be in addition to the three weeks period that all persons applying for benefits are required to wait.

To protect workers from being forced to take work for which they are not fitted the Unemployment Compensation Act sets up a system of safeguards. Workers are not required to take jobs which pay less than the prevailing rate of wage for the same kind of work in the community. Nor are they required to accept jobs under standard conditions or when the jobs would impair their health or morals. Unemployed persons are not required to accept work at any place where labor disputes are in progress, nor to take jobs that would require them to join company unions, sign pledges not to join unions, or to resign from unions to which they belong.

Of course, Illinois workers need not wait until next July to take advantage of the services of the Employment offices. These offices are now operating in most communities and are placing hundreds of men and women in jobs each week. Last year the Illinois State Employment Service found work for 127,214 persons in private industry.

In fact, the Unemployment Compensation Division urges all persons who are unemployed, whether or not they will be eligible for benefits after next July, to register at Employment offices as soon as possible.

While no benefits will be paid until after July 1, the Employment Service may be able to find a job for the unemployed worker so that he or she will not have to apply for benefits in July.

By registering with the Employment Service prior to July 1, workers will have met this requirement of the law and will save themselves the inconvenience should they still find it necessary to file a claim for benefits after July 1.

Three things that Illinois workers can do now to protect their stake in job insurance are:

1. If unemployed, they should register at once with the Illinois Employment Service.

2. Keep records of all wages they have earned in insured employment under the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Act.

3. Make certain that they have Social Security Account Number cards, and each worker has only one such number, and report it correctly to every employing unit by which the worker is employed.

News from Springfield...

by BERNICE T. VAN DER VRIES
Representative 7th District
General Assembly of Illinois

After a recess because of the Chicago primary election, the General Assembly gave evidence of a more serious desire to tackle the work of the session at least for a few weeks. Probably the Chicago mayoralty election on April 4 will again force a recess as many of the members who occupy positions in the various governments of Chicago and Cook county, as well as in the political organizations, are restless and are eager to be at home. In the meantime the two houses are organized for work, the last step having been accomplished when the house on Tuesday adopted the joint rules of the senate and the house.

About four hundred bills have been introduced into the house and about two hundred into the senate. It is interesting to note that in the last two regular sessions practically the same number of bills had made their appearance as at this session up to the present time. Moreover, the index of the subjects covered in the bills is very much the same. All of which goes to show that there is very little difference in sessions regardless of changing memberships and leaderships.

Debates over investigations of state expenditures and payrolls again consumed considerable time both in the house and the senate. In the senate the interest centered around the accusations of irregularities of state officials made by Senator Karraker of Jonesboro, a Democrat. In the house the collapse of the Republican majority in defending efforts to throw out the house investigation committee because of the failure of Republican members, mostly from Cook county, to support their Republican colleagues, gave hope to the Democratic minority on future legislation.

Except for the debate in the house on the question of substituting a joint senate and house investigating committee for the individual committees set up by each house, the main event of the week in the house was the hearing of the City Manager bills before the Municipalities committee. Many spectators were representing the Leagues of Women Voters, Chambers of Commerce, Civic clubs and the Illinois and Chicago City Manager organizations. Only the proponents were heard. The opposition for which organized labor is the spokesman will be heard on the twenty-first. According to a proposal by the writer that a vote should be taken at the close of the next hearing the test of whether the bills will be able to secure the recommendation of the committee will not be delayed as in previous sessions. It is difficult to understand why the people of the various municipalities should not be given the right to vote on the form of government which the municipality may have. Under the referendum provisions every citizen of a municipality would have the opportunity to vote upon the question.

In the senate the "women on jury" bills passed by a comfortable majority, although there was considerable agitation against them on the part of some of the senators. The bills now have to pass the house where there has been for several sessions an ample number of votes. However in the house there may be the usual exemption amendments added which the sponsors do not care to have.

So many amendments to the Old Age Assistance act have been introduced that probably all of the bills will be thrown into a committee for study in order that the legislation passed may not conflict with the federal law and thus endanger the chances of federal assistance which provides fifty per cent of the costs. Most of the bills provide for exemptions on home-owners worth various amounts and for insurance policies.

Of interest to business men and to labor are the bills introduced this week which provide for a two week's annual vacation for employees with pay, and a bill providing that employers may not feed and house strike breakers.

The Illinois Municipal league, in session in Springfield Tuesday and Wednesday, laid before the legislature the problem of paying the minimum salaries for policemen and firemen as established in the law passed in the session of the general assembly two years ago. The bill introduced as a companion bill to the minimum wage bill, was a bill increasing taxes to permit the payment of the wages. The Governor vetoed the tax bill and the Supreme court held the wage law constitutional. With pressure from the policemen and firemen for back wages as well as for the payment of minimum wages, the municipalities affected are in serious financial difficulties.

Wheeling

Friends were pleased to receive an announcement telling of the arrival of a baby boy, William James, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Withams of Edison Park. Mrs. Withams is better known as Adele Richman, who taught school here a number of years ago.

A baby girl was born to the Edward Gluck family last week on Tuesday. Later in the week it was found necessary to remove the mother to a hospital because of complications which developed. The infant is being cared for by the older sister with the help of her aunt. We hope the mother's condition may soon be improved.

Mrs. Alvina Utpatel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Utpatel, Miss Esther Utpatel and friend were invited for dinner at the home of a relative in Chicago on Sunday.

Mr. Merritt Day recently sold his home on Wille ave., to Mr. R. Taylor. The Taylors expect to occupy their new home about April 1.

We are very sorry to note the death of Mr. Jacob Ott at the Highland Park hospital on Monday. Mr. Ott had survived a major operation, which was performed seemingly very successfully, a week before. Conditions following the operation seemed very favorable and his sudden death came as a shock to his family and friends.

The Utpatel family attended the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. Wm. Otto near Lemont, Ill., on Wednesday. Miss Anna Armbruster visited at the Balling home this week the first time since they are in their new home.

The charge of admission will be 35 cents, there will be uniform prizes and door prizes. For further information call Mrs. Ledyard, chairman, or Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Tom Barry had the misfortune to sprain her ankle while visiting at the home of Mrs. Berquist on Hillside ave., last Wednesday afternoon. We hope that the ankle will soon be O.K. again, and that Mrs. Barry will be out and around real soon.

Mrs. Bob Conley, down at the Sinclair service station is now making pies for the lunch counter, and those who have eaten them declare them to be first rate. Dick "The Baron" says the only trouble is that the pieces are not quite big enough, although they look like very large portions to your correspondent. Mrs. Conley will be glad to take orders for pies.

Congratulations to Mrs. Maud Williams who celebrated her birthday on the 14th, and to Ed. Sobwick, who is celebrating his birthday St. Patrick's Day, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rauen and Mr. Harry Steele enjoyed a typical German dinner last Friday at the home of Mr. Trommer and Mr. Weck. This was quite a treat for all the folks, and especially so for Mrs. Rauen, as she was the only one present who was not in any sense German, being very much Scotch. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Portman joined the folks, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by every one, before all returned home in the "Wee Sma" hours.

Mrs. Nan Rauen was the guest of Mrs. Sig Brownell, and Mrs. Vi Danielson last Friday. The ladies took in the show at the Chicago theatre, and had lunch in Field's tea room. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable afternoon for the three ladies, thanks to Vi and Sig.

Mrs. Norman Olson, again entertained her aunt and uncle, Mr.

Mr. Paul Weck entertained Mrs. Anne Nielsen, Mrs. Marie Olson, and Mrs. Nan Rauen, Monday. As and was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Who's Who

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold of MacDonald moved into our community about last Thanksgiving from Long Grove.

Mr. Arnold is Golf Pro at the Kildeer Country Club, and has been with the country club for quite some time. He enjoys working in the garden, as one of his hobbies and he regrets that he cannot get out to do something in the garden in the winter, since he is kept so busy over at the club.

Mrs. Arnold is quite a flower gardener, and is also an expert at making rock gardens.

Mrs. Arnold is American born of German, Scotch and Irish descent, and Mr. Arnold is English, having come to these United States about eleven years ago.

The Arnolds have one pet, a dog named "Speedy."

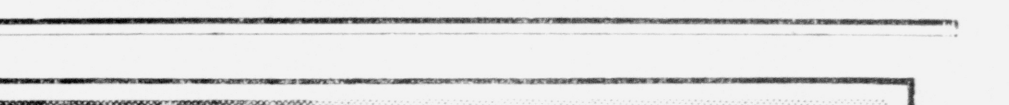

Mrs. Flafferty, who is the mother of Mrs. Arnold, makes her home with the folks, and is another one who is very much interested in the nice weather getting here real soon, as she likes to enjoy the garden.

The model illustrated is the Buick SPECIAL model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.

FIRST time we saw the blueprints for this Buick thirty-niner we knew we had something pretty special for folks who like action in their travels.

It had eight eager cylinders in a mighty Dynaflex engine—and they could make a scared jack rabbit eat dust whenever the word was given!

It had a ride we promptly dubbed "full float"—its stout coiled springs are now 15% softer in the rear, and hooked up, in front, with Kneec-Action that banks curves for you.

It had a view, a gorgeous view, from windows and windshields as much as 412 square inches bigger—and it had style that has already altered the pattern on many another car-stylist's drawing board.

So we looked it all over—and went a step further. We decided a car so plainly meant for action needed to have a price that would get action for it!

Now it isn't easy to build such a traveler—rich in reliable Buick quality clear down to the metals it's made of—and still give it a price that rubs elbows with the sixes.

But just look around, match up the price tags, and you'll find that this great straight-eight lists for less than some cars with two fewer cylinders!

It comes complete with equipment that's extra in many another instance—yet the figures still read lower than on Buick of a year ago.

So when you see this Buick you not only see the car, but the one big value of the year. That's why we're anxious to have you try Buick—it's a car with a winning way about it, and a winning price tag in the bargain!

Better buy Buick!

See Junk Jewelry in Spring Colors

Junk jewelry, made up in the best of the spring accessory colors, such as the cyclamen range of pinks, fuchsia, magenta red, violet, pastel, and vivid blue, lime green, and gold, to mustard yellow, is being used to give a color note to the best winter dresses.

Velvet or silk ribbon bracelets with heavy jeweled plaques at the front are worn in pairs, with a jeweled clip to match them. Enamel clips and clips set with fake stones, in big sizes, are very chic. One of the enamel flower clips is made to represent twin morning glories in fuchsia and blue with a gold stem.

Jeweled hat pins continue to be worn in the new hats.

New Gloves Match Footwear or Bags

Glove, shoe and handbag ensembles of medium price have been launched in one-color combinations such as purplish blue or rust. . . . Dasque dresses, molding the figure to the hipbones, are being shown universally for midseason wear.

White dots and stars pepper the black crepe jacket frocks featured by a New York shop as stepping stones from winter crepes to spring prints. . . . Cotton plaids are being talked about as "comers" for spring.

For a Boy's Room

A monotone color scheme is effectively carried out in a room for a boy of high school or college age. Painted walls of pinkish-beige meet a soft brown carpet.

Pastels Popular

Pastel shades of blue, mauve and purple are most popular.

Mrs. Harriman Candidate For Office of Region Of Women's Clubs

Mrs. F. Harriman, immediate past president of the seventh district Women's Club, is to be a candidate for vice president of the Northern Region of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Harriman is well known to Arlington Heights club women, and has appeared on several of the club programs. The election will be held at the state convention during the first three days in May, at the Hotel Sherman. Only delegates have the power to vote.

Mrs. Harriman is well qualified for the position, as she has served in many capacities in club work, aside from her term as seventh district president; she at one time sponsored all of the Junior clubs in the seventh district and has served as literature and drama chairman for the district. The clubs of the seventh district are backing Mrs. Harriman very strongly and are hoping to see her gain this office.

Pediatrician To Speak At P. T. A. Meeting

Dr. Blessing, well known pediatrician of Evanston, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, which will be held March 21 at 8 p. m. in the North school building.

Dr. Blessing has chosen for his topic "Problem Parents," which will carry out the theme for the year "Promoting the General Welfare Through Adult Education."

The music for the program will be furnished by the high school chorus under the direction of Mr. Costain. Mrs. Paszotta and Mr. Anderson will play piano duets.

Mrs. Briggs Reports On Presbyterian Societies At Missionary Meeting

Woman's Missionary of Presbyterian church provided an interesting program Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. C. Cleveland, chairman, Pastor H. A. Kossack, conducted devotional service. The members of the choir rendered two anthems. Mrs. Johnson, choir director, sang a solo appropriate to the occasion. Miss Evelyn Jarvis and Mr. F. E. Briggs, sang a duet, adding to the musical part of the program.

Mrs. F. E. Briggs, in her usual clear, concise delivery, gave account of various missionary societies in this presbytery. She had attended as representative of local W. H. F. M. society, giving interesting report of meetings at Hull House, Erie Chapel, etc., and a resume of work and conditions among workers in China and Japan, well calculated to arouse new interest and responsibility in the need of greater effort in the broad field and work open to all churches.

Kindergarten Class Help Patsy Connelly Celebrate Her Birthday

Patsy Connelly was six years old Saturday, and the twenty-eight members of her kindergarten class were her guests at a happy party. Mrs. Milton Daniels assisted Patsy's mother with the games, which the children enjoyed. Balloons and E. Patrick decorations made the party festive and supper was served to the little guests at five o'clock.

District Women's Clubs To Meet At Des Plaines For Fine Arts Festival

Art, literature, drama and music will be on the program for the Seventh District Fine Arts Festival, next Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock in the municipal building, Miner and Graceland aves., Des Plaines. All clubwomen and their friends are invited.

Mrs. E. R. Wuerntemberger, music chairman, will present Helma Puhl who will sing a group of arias from popular operas. Miss Puhl will be accompanied by Ruby Hawley, pianist.

"Some of the Aims of the Modern Art Movement" will be the topic of a talk by Miss Margaret Selleck. Miss Selleck will be introduced by Mrs. Walter H. Tallant, art chairman.

Madame Elizabeth Guion Hess will give a monologue "At a Futuristic Art Exhibition" and a brief review of "Sanity in Art" by Mrs. Frank Granger Logan. Mrs. Le Roy C. Leonard, literature chairman, will present Madame Hess. The 7th District will again give the Poetry Award in the annual creative writing contest conducted by the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

An American Home Institute will be conducted by Mrs. Ervin A. Mudgett, next Monday, in the Gladstone Park Field House, 5421 N. Menard ave., at two o'clock. Mrs. Mudgett will present Mrs. W. W. Siddall who will speak on "Our Jobs as Homemakers" and "The Trip of Thrift."

Singing Violinist To Appear At Woman's Club

Miss Bessie Andrus, better known as the singing violinist, will be the guest artist at the Woman's Club dessert luncheon, which will be held March 22 at 1:30 in the Methodist church.

Miss Andrus appeared on a program of the club last year and was received with such acclaim that the program committee are presenting her again. This year she will have with her a tenor soloist and her accompanist. She will present several groups of songs from light opera and other musical shows in costume. With her tenor soloist, she will present the doll scene from the Tales of Hoffman.

High Necks Are Now in Fashion

Amusing Things Done With Accessories.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Let your imagination run wild and do amusing gay things with accessory gadgets.

The foundation—any black dress. The accent—a tiny little crepe lastex bolero in shocking pink, deep turquoise, or spic-and-span white to suit your fancy.

Things are going higher and higher. Dame Fashion favors us with high necks and hair piled high on our heads. Get yourself one of the new high collars in crisp pique or venise to give you a dainty ruff around your neck. If you are an industrious soul, buy yards of pleated ruching and sew it into the necks of your dresses—very 1930, and oh, so flattering with your hair up high.

Tiny little silk or cotton pique collar and cuffs are perfect to give you a sweet demure appearance. Very chic and new are jewel colored velvet collars and cuffs for your simple wool or crepe dress. Lame collars are smart and sophisticated. Wear them for that important cocktail date.

For your tweedy country suit, remember little jersey cardigans in autumn leaf colors are smartest. If you are a mite on the Scotch side, wear a colorful Tartan plaid gilet to keep you warm. Don't forget, the shirt on your back should be the ever popular tailored gilet in brilliant silk crepes. Your town tailor needs an exquisite hand embroidered georgette gilet with val edging.

For evening, deck yourself out in a jewel tone quilted velvet jacket that zips right up the front. Pamper your young ideas and wear a miniature velvet muff on a cord around your neck.

AN INVITATION TO THE LAYMEN OF ST. PETERS EVANGELICAL LUTH. CHURCH

You are cordially invited to join us in an evening of good fellowship. So we have arranged an interesting program for our League March 17, starting at 8 p. m. The lecture will be on The Ancient Civilization of China and after the lecture a really good surprise. So don't fail to come. Lutheran Laymen's League

Gas Produces Eyes in Cheese
The holes or eyes in Swiss cheese are produced by the liberation of gases generated by bacterial action during the fermentation process. It was formerly thought that the atmosphere and grass of Switzerland were essential to the development of these eyes, but the U. S. department of agriculture has shown that good Swiss cheese can be produced in other parts of the world by employing a bacteria starter.

Oldest European Dye
The oldest known European dye was made from the herbaceous plant, Reseda luteola, commonly called "weld." The name weld probably came from the old German word Wald from which the French word gaude was derived—the source of our own word "gaudy." To produce the popular gaudy green of that day, the material to be dyed was first dipped in indigo and then in weld.

Paris Mantillas
Creating 'Halos'
Paris is throwing transparent evening mantillas over its head, using anything from angel-breath tulle to lace to contribute a halo-like look. Worn toward the back of the head Spanish-fashion, the mantillas are held in place by flowers, jewels or feathers.
Long mittens reaching to the elbows are also making an appearance, finishing with ruffles, pleatings or ruffles.

Style Notes
Skirts go short, shorter, shorter.
Tones of gray is forecast for spring.
Spotlight is on the guimpe dress for spring.
It's a fluffly-ruffle season—frills on everything.
Fashion stresses soft fullness of unpressed coats.
Suits and coats are styled with ribbon-bound edges.
Short fur cape or jacket is smart spring fashion.
Dazzling white touches on black is important style formula.

O. E. S. Celebrates Past Officers' Night
Arlington Heights Chapter No. 992 O. E. S. celebrated its ninth birthday night and Past Officers' night, March 9.

Wardner, Elmer Crane.
Sentinel, Harold Hastings, Sentinel.
Soloist, Annabelle Tesch, soloist.
Guest of Honor, Marie C. Muller, Palatine.
The Charter members of the Chapter were escorted.
It was gratifying to see so many members from neighboring chapters out to honor past officers.
An impressive service, called "Fenced in by Love," was given in honor of the past officers of the chapter by the present officers, assisted by Emma Schmidt, representing the older member; Winifred Schumaker, the newest member; Adeline Podzimek, the young builder; Clara Carlson and Harold Hastings also assisted.
A beautiful floral memorial was placed upon the altar for Sally Volz, the founder of the chapter.
After pleasing remarks from the guests in the East, refreshments were served by Alma Ihle and her committee. Mrs. Ihle also baked and served a delicious birthday cake.
Dorothy Dutton and committee decorated the dining room and made lovely old-fashioned nosegays for the guests and officers.

Paris Flashes
Gigantic back combs tower above tiny hats.
Huge jeweled rings are worn, and wide bracelets.
New fashions stress color, youth and femininity.
Pendulum swings back to pinched-in waists.
Black with dazzling white touches is smart for day wear.
Wimples, scarfs, veils, snoods offer interesting possibilities.
Full wrist-length sleeves give new look to blouses and to coats.

Auxiliary Helps Legion Celebrate On Twentieth Birthday Anniversary

Merle Guild Post No. 208 celebrated the 20th anniversary of the American Legion last Tuesday by giving a chop suey dinner in honor of Past Commanders of the Post.
After the dinner, the auxiliary served ice cream and cake. The cake was an imposing structure made by the Mors Bakery and appropriately decorated in Legion colors with golden frosting and 20 blue candles.
Mrs. Wisersky, president of the Auxiliary, gave a presentation talk and read a poem "To The Legion" written by Mrs. Maude Parker. While the candles burned, all joined in singing.
General Wise honored the occasion by being present with his staff and moving picture outfit, to help in entertaining.
Mrs. Albert C. Russell, 117 E. Euclid, will be hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary at a one o'clock luncheon, Tuesday, March 21. A silver offering will be taken to aid in carrying out the welfare work.

Start with the Soil

ALL GARDENING must begin with the soil. Many new houses have gardens that were made from soil taken from the foundation excavations. Such soil is dead—it lacks the humus that decaying vegetable matter leaves in a cultivated soil.

POOR SOIL should be given a two or three inch covering of humus (500 lbs. will give a two inch covering to one hundred square feet), before digging is begun. Then as you dig the soil, the humus may be worked into the top ten inches. While the ground is still rough, scatter a complete garden fertilizer, using ten pounds to every two hundred square feet. Then rake the top three inches of soil to make a fine surface for seed sowing or planting. Finally, firm the soil by tramping or rolling.

LIGHT SANDY SOILS may be improved by the addition of humus or peat moss. These materials not only improve the mechanical condition of the soil and give plants a more satisfactory rooting medium, but most important of all, they help such soils to retain moisture.

HEAVY CLAY SOILS which tend to cake after rain or watering should have sand and peat moss added to them. It is also good to dig in garden rubbish, leaves, etc.

GREEN MANURING is an excellent way by which to add humus and mineral foods to the soil. Vetches, rye, buckwheat and crimson clover are ordinarily sown for this purpose. Pea and bean plants should never be burned. Dig them into the soil for they contain valuable nitrogen deposits which are released into the soil as the plants decay.

Bowling News— Suburban Alleys

Arlington Heights—

by HERB HAMMER

The Monday night league is becoming more complicated every week. Blatz took the last game to a one game lead with the rest of the teams bunched close behind only 1 and 2 game away. With three more weeks to go, anything can happen.

On 1 and 2 El Rand and Blatz bowled a close match all the way through. El Rand won the first game by 5 pins and the second by 17 pins. Blatz took the last game by one pin. Frank Zaczek had high series with 589 and took the dollar on 215. J. D. got 587 for Blatz.

On 3 and 4 the Hammes easily took three games from Cafe who were minus three of their regular bowlers. Joe Brodman was high with 608 and won the "hook" on 233. Hammes got 1933 their last game.

On 5 and 6 the Elevators, minus Alex Askold, who is vacationing in Florida, won two games from Hartmann's, and are now tied with them for third place. Hammes are in second place by themselves this week, one game out. Johnny Oltroge was high for Elevators, getting 575, and "Dooley" Winkelman was high for Hartmann's with 592. George also got the dollar on 228.

Haegers Pottery Loses To Alumni Of Bensenville

Overpower Dundee Five 45-30; Lights Defeat Elmhurst

Bensenville Alumni closed the '39 home season last Sunday with a double victory over Dundee Haegers Pottery and Elmhurst. The Bensenville heavies played their best ball of the season thoroughly outplaying and outscoring a strong Dundee quintet.

The home team led by G. Shaw, A. Jennings and E. Mensching, hit the half 22-18 with the same trio hitting the hoop in the second, they went on to rout Dundee 45-30. E. Gutnick and Al Born put on one of the finest exhibitions of guarding seen on the Bensenville floor.

The Dundee team was led by Amibali, who scored nine points.

In the preliminary game, the home lights defeated a good Elmhurst team 41-23. The Bensenville lights finished the home season with a record of 5 wins and 2 losses. The two defeats were lost by a margin of three points. L. Shiver of Bensenville, led the scoring with 12 points.
